

Hawkes Bay Locals “Picks” of Top Attractions to See & Do

Are you thinking of attending the alpaca conference in June? This year’s conference is being held in “Hawkes Bay Wine Country”, so why not extend your stay & see some of the sights our beautiful region has to offer. You will receive a Visitors Guide on arrival, but here are some ideas of things to “see & do” from the “alpaca locals” that live here, so you can start planning your visit well in advance.

More information can be found on www.hawkesbaytourism.co.nz

NAPIER

- Enjoy a delicious Rush Munroe’s ice-cream
- Visit Hawkes Bay Farmers Market – Sunday mornings only

HAVELOCK NORTH

- Visit our “sleeping giant”, Te Mata Peak – drive up the peak for panoramic views, or walk one of the many tracks at the foothills of the mountain
- Visit Arataki Honey & see the bees in action
- Visit Te Mata Cheese & sample/purchase their products or just enjoy the cafe
- Visit Birdwoods Gallery & the old fashioned lolly shop – a step back in time with lollies from your childhood
- Take a drive to the coast to Waimarama or Ocean beach
- Visit the Maraetotara waterfalls & walk alongside the stream
- Visit the world’s largest mainland gannet colony – by tractor, 4x4, or walk around the beach
- Play a round of golf at the internationally renowned Cape Kidnappers course

WINERIES

- Wineries in the western quarter – Mission Estate, Church Road Winery, Te Awa Farm, Salvadore, Ngatarawa Wines, Sileni Estate, Abbey Cellars
- Wineries en route to the coast – Vidal Estate, Black Barn, Craggy Range Estate, Elephant Hill, Clearview Estate, Kim Crawford Wines

OPEN ALPACA FARMS

- A selection of Hawkes Bay alpaca farms will be available to visit on Monday after the conference, where local breeders will happily show you around their property. The list of farms is still being collated & will be included in your conference registration bag.
